Sea breezes and ocean views... what better setting for supper? Here, our favorite beachfront eateries across the region.

THAILAND

Bistro @ The Beach

This cozy restaurant has a marquee seaside spot on the quiet side of Koh Phangan. Order the geang chu chi goong, tiger prawns swimming in cream from the island's coconuts. Anantara Rasananda, 5/5 Moo 5 Thong Nai Pan Noi Beach, Baan Tai, Koh Phangan; 66-77/239-555; phangan-rasananda.anantara.com; dinner for two Bt1,700.

INDONESIA

Sundara

Mouthwatering surf and turf—think snapper with pickled fennel or double-rack of Australian lamb—is the name of the game at this luxe beach club, where the Sunday brunch is a must-visit. Bloodys, bubbles and beach—done. Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay; 62-361/708-333; sundarabali.com; dinner for two Rp1,020,000.

AUSTRALIA

Da Orazio Pizza + Porchetta

Bondi's surfside dining scene has gotten a welcome dose of glam and restaurateur Maurice Terzini's latest project offers up its hottest tables. The blistered pies owe their authenticity to a Neapolitan chef, while the porcine dish sports ever-so crisp skin. 3/75-79 Hall St. Bondi; 61-2/8090-6969; daorazio.com; dinner for two A$90.

PHILIPPINES

Sands Restaurant

The suckling pig and buttery Palawan lobster almost upstage the waves. For a truly Filipino experience, round up five of your friends for a medley of regional specialties called a "Boodle fight." Discovery Shores Boracay, Station 1, Balabag; 63-2/720-8888; discoveryhotels-resorts.com; dinner for two P1,600. —DIANA HUBBELL
